BOSTON, MA - JULY 26, 2011 | John Allen Royce's debut title, Eclipsed by Shadow, has been nominated for a Global eBook Award in the Young Adult Fiction category.

Eclipsed by Shadow is Book One of The Legend of the Great Horse trilogy, a literary adventure about the colorful role of horses in civilization. The story begins the adventures of a modern rider carried back into history. Eclipsed by Shadow has won national honors including the Eric Hoffer Book Award for Young Adult Fiction.

The author, John Allen Royce, has lived 'from sea to shining sea' in his native America, and now resides in Boston, Massachusetts. Over 20 years experience in competitive riding combined with the author's passion for historical research to spark The Legend of the Great Horse trilogy.

"Everyone is talking about eBooks!" says the founder of the Global eBook Awards, Dan Poynter. "eBooks have reached the tipping point and are outselling books on paper in several categories. eBooks are not replacing paper books, they are in addition to."

The Awards have 79 categories in fiction, nonfiction, poetry, illustration, and multimedia. The Global eBook Award winners will be honored at a star-studded ceremony on August 20 in Santa Barbara, California.
